To Whom It May Concern,

I am happy to offer a letter of recommendation for Frinzetta Shivers Adewale. As a website designer with YP, she consistently produced top-notch designs for multiple clients all while maintaining quality and creativity. She is highly knowledgeable with an expert eye for detail. She performed very well in a high-pressure environment, yet stayed consistent in her overall production.

Frinzetta has an impressive web design background and is proficient in CSS, HTML, Photoshop, and Dreamweaver. She has worked on countless design assignments where her knowledge of these design skills had a direct impact on the successful completion of client projects. She excelled at interpreting creative direction and producing solid designs that surpassed the client's expectations.

Overall, Frinzetta was a great asset to my design team. She was an outstanding team player and had excellent work ethic. She was a consistent top performer, often exceeding in production and quality metrics. I am confident that her proven commitment to the work done while at YP will transfer to her work with any future clients or employers that may seek her services. Frinzetta would be a definite asset to your organization.

Sincerely,

Joy Bryan
